

How to Have a Cooperative, Child Centered Divorce in Montana

Not sure you want a divorce?

Try Mediate to Stay Married

Different than counseling. Identify what you both need to make the relationship more satisfying, ask for what you want in a way the other can hear. Go home with improved communication and behavioral agreements.

Contact Mediation Works here.

Want a do it yourself divorce?

Go to courts.mt.gov

On the blue bar at the bottom of page, Click on FORMS

Under Choose a Topic, click on

Dissolution of Marriage

The most cooperative agreement is

Joint Dissolution With/Without Children Packet (accepted by most district courts).

Questions? Contact Mediation Works here.

Getting stuck?

Are the 93 pages of forms confusing?

Overwhelmed with the number of decisions?

Not sure what to do next?

Can't talk about it with each other?

Certified Mediator & Advanced Practitioner Linda Gryczan will take you through the forms and simplify the process.

She will help you decide how to divide property fairly and parent your children together in separate households.

She will de-escalate any past conflict and facilitate your conversation so you both get the most of what you want—even if you haven't been able to talk about it on your own.

Contact Mediation Works here.

Do you own a house, have retirement accounts & other property?

Middle income families have more assets than fit on the state forms. Linda will create an additional written agreement to outline the distribution of your money, debts and property.

Contact Mediation Works here.

For more information see Divorce Mediation in 10 Steps at <http://mediationworks.tv/divorce/>

Disclaimer—This is not legal advice and you will consult with an attorney before you sign any legal documents.